

World War 1 Interactive Display Package Great War 100 Infographics

- Brief, Precise Information
- Only £200
- Stunning Graphical Design
- Easy to Digest

A series of images displaying brief, factual information alongside stunning graphical design. Drawn from Scott Addington's book these images have been written specifically for people with little or no prior knowledge of the First World War and will be an ideal introduction to what can be a very complicated and daunting subject. They are perfect for the average museum visitor who requires brief, factual and engaging information.

Great War 100 Infographics is an off-the-shelf multimedia presentation designed for museums and other public displays. Written in an engaging way, it is designed to be easily digestible rather than a heavy historical text. The infographics can be set up to run in a straightforward presentation, or as part of a screensaver depending on the needs of the museum.

The Benefits of Using InfoAktiv.

Because it runs on an InfoAktiv system, the package is amazingly easy to tailor, expand, adapt and update. It can be modified by anybody who can use a PC. This removes any reliance or expense associated with using outside contractors and makes it a perfect and very gratifying project for volunteers to work on.

InfoAktiv systems are a superb asset and a long-term investment because they can be used and re-used for any subject. Displays never need to become stagnant or out-of-date.

What's in the Package?

Over 100 different Infographics covering the most important aspects of the Great War.

Infographics are branded into the following categories; Overview, Air, Battles, Casualties and Remembrance, Sea, Soldiers, Victoria Cross and Weapons.

Simple to Use

Users need only upload the graphics onto their system and they are ready to go! Alternatively, images can be loaded onto a PowerPoint to create a screensaver
